

FCC: Please do not change Indiana state law on telephone privacy act. My wife and I are not bothered by too many unknown calls. I wouldn't that to happen again especially with the credit cards calling from banks. Everyone I talk to has said the same thing about their being less calls since joining the Indiana list.

Thank you, Robert M. Riese